HEAPS PRAISES UPON WATSON AS MOST LOYAL AND PATRIOTIC MAN

Congressman Humphrey From Washington Classes Local Statesmen as one of Foremost

SAYS NATION WATCHES RACE

Recalls Some of 41 Pledges That Wilson Administration Made and Did not Keep

CANDIDATES ARE INTRODUCED

Harry S. New Reaffirms Belief That His Colleague Will Run With Him in Marion

Praise, in glowing terms, was heaped on James E. Watson, amid boisterous applause, by Congressman William E. Humphrey of Washington, and other speakers expressed their appreciation not only of Mr. Watson's services to the Republican party, but paid tribute to John K. Gowdy, at the republican meeting at the Graham Annex last night, which came as the climax of the most successful tour of the county ever held.

Every mention of Watson's and Gowdy's name was greeted with long applause. The townspeople of the candidate for senator showed their loyalty to him and proved to the visiting speakers that his worth is appreciated by his next door neighbors.

"Indiana has two distinguished sons who are candidates on the republican ticket for the United States Senate. Both of these men are of marked ability, high standing and worthy of support of every citizen," said Representative Humphrey.

"I am pleased to have the privilege of speaking here tonight in the home of James E. Watson. I have known him intimately for many years. I served with him in Congress; I know his ability; I know his standing in that great legislative body. He is one of the most foremost orators in this country. He is one of the most loyal and patriotic men in this nation. He is one of the most lovable, kindly and generous men that I have ever had the fortune to call my friend.

"He commanded the confidence, the admiration and the esteem of all his colleagues in Congress, regardless of party. He is a leader among leaders. Above all he has courage, the most valuable of all traits in a public servant. He has convictions and he dares to utter them.

"Every one always knows where to find Jim Watson. He never flinches or apologizes or stutters. He has, and deserves, a national reputation as one of the ablest men that has been in Congress during the last twenty years.

"He has acquaintances in both the House and Senate. He knows how laws are made. He knows the intricacies of legislation. He will not have to learn the ways of Congress; he already knows.

"The value of his experience to Indiana and the country can not be overestimated. He will begin at the place a new man would reach only after years of service. He will at once command the attention of the entire nation. He will at once become one of the leaders of that great body.

"Mr. Watson has had the courage of his convictions. He has championed the great principle of a protective tariff. He has stood for protection when it was not popular to do so, but his attitude on this and many other republican principles has been vindicated.

Familiar Scenes Shown in G. O. P. Motion Pictures

Familiar scenes from Rushville, several of which were shown, were applauded when the motion picture prepared by the republican state committee and one "A Reunited Party," arranged by the republican national committee, were presented at the Graham Annex last night following the political meeting.

James E. Watson was shown in a number of different poses and at various places. A view of him standing on his lawn here, a view of his home and a scene showing him and his family leaving their home and returning was the signal for long applause.

Mr. Watson was also seen in conference with John K. Gowdy, former state chairman, under the familiar awning back of Mr. Gowdy's home, where he enjoyed the hot summer days. Mr. Gowdy entered the picture again when a view was presented of him, twenty years ago leader of the republican party in the state, in conference with the present state chairman, Will H. Hays, on the lawn in front of Gowdy's home.

Mr. Watson was again seen when just pictures of the candidates were displayed in order, and at another stage of the film, when he, James P. Goodrich, Harry S. New and the state chairman were in conference on the lawn at C. W. Fairbanks' home. The Rushville candidate was again shown to good advantage when he was congratulated by Ed Toner, former state chairman of the progressive party.

Views of all the state candidates were presented, interspersed with crisp sayings by J. P. Goodrich, revealing how extravagant the state administration had been under democratic rule, by increasing offices and adding to the running expenses of the government.

Both in the state and national picture, views are given of Gov. Hughes when he spent Sunday at the home of C. W. Fairbanks recently. The national committee film is devoted largely to showing the immense crowds which Hughes addressed while on campaign tours and giving excerpts from his speeches. Pictures of Roosevelt and Taft and their endorsement of Hughes are also included.

country is greatly interested in the election of Watson."

Judge Sparks presided and introduced all of the candidates, who spoke briefly. Edgar Bush of Salem, candidate for lieutenant-governor, said that "after the speeches today and the crowds who have listened to them, my belief is reaffirmed that the republican party has come back, and has come back to stay."

"I am only too glad to be in the home county of my colleague, James E. Watson," said Harry S. New, when introduced by Judge Sparks. "I am also glad to be in the home of that sturdy old republican, Capt. John K. Gowdy. The republicans of Indiana appreciate the service he has rendered.

"When you hear from the returns from Marion county," he said at the close of his short speech, "I am sure you will be satisfied, because I guarantee that my colleague will run right along with me."

Lem Dobyns, of Greensburg, candidate for joint senator, said that if the people wanted a business administration in the state and a reduction of taxes, they should elect a republican senate and house to

ASKS RECEIVER; LIEN FORECLOSED

Mrs. Laura Joyce Stamm, as Guardian, Files Action Against J. Barnes, Demanding $750

CLAIMS NOTE FOR $300 IS DUE

Mrs. Laura Joyce Stamm, as guardian of Forest Joyce, Lorene Joyce, John Joyce and Gilbert Joyce, has filed suit in the circuit court against Jonah Barnes, asking for the foreclosure of a lien and the appointment of a receiver, demanding $750.

It is alleged that she leased him a farm of 120 acres for the term of one year, dating from Mar. 1, 1916, to March 1, 1917. The consideration was $750, according to the complaint and to secure the payment he issued three notes, one for $150 due March 1, 1916, one for $300 due September 1, 1916 and one for $300 due December 25, 1916. The complaint alleges that he has failed to pay the note for $300 due Sept. 1 and refuses to pay.

The complaint set forth that unless a receiver is appointed to take charge of the personal property he will remove it from the farm and prevent her from collecting the notes. Kiplinger and Smith represent the plaintiff.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR HERE

Thomas Dailey Speaks to Crowd in Court House Composed of 58 Democrats, 12 Progressives

CHAIRMAN ED LEE ALSO HERE

The progressive meeting in the court house last night attracted a crowd of seventy-four, by actual count. Of the seventy-four 58 were democrats, 12 were progressives and 4 of unknown political faith. The speaker of the evening was Thomas Dailey, progressive candidate for governor.

Mr. Dailey was introduced to the crowd by Ed Lee, progressive state chairman. Both men rapped both of the older parties and declared that they failed to see how a progressive could vote either the democratic or republican tickets this fall since the progressives stand for the same things they did in 1912 and in 1914.

The meeting was arranged on short notice. The progressives also toured the county yesterday, following in the wake of the republican tour.

INHERITANCE TAX $216.76

Appraiser Finds Late Allen Hinchman's Estate is Worth $30,430

Judge Sparks has approved the inheritance tax in the estate of the late Allen Hinchman as appraised by inheritance tax appraiser, Henry Schrader. The estate was found to be worth $30,430, of which $28,930 is real estate and $1,500 personal property. The inheritance tax to the state amounts to $216.76 and must be paid by three heirs as follows: U. G. Hinchman, $122.52; Minnie Rich, $86.72 and Ruth Hinchman $7.52. The other heirs sharing in the estate get less than $2,000 and are therefore exempt from taxation.

VANNUYS DEFENDS DEMOCRATIC LAWS

Speaks to Crowd That Fills Town Hall at Raleigh, Following Address by Robert Adams

GEORGE CAMPBELL PRESIDES

Speaking before a crowd that filled the town hall at Raleigh, Fred Van Nuys of Indianapolis defended the democratic administration and praised the laws enacted under the democrats. Robert Adams, an Indianapolis attorney addressed the audience before Mr. Van Nuys and gave a very able address. The meeting was held last night.

George Campbell of this city presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers. The Falmouth orchestra furnished the music. The Washington township crowd was augmented by a crowd going in two machines from this city.

Mr. VanNuys outlined the various reforms that the democrats claim to have enacted into law, defended both the state and national administrations and made a strong appeal for the re-election of President Wilson. This was the second appearance of VanNuys in Rush county this campaign.

SECTION OF FIFTY SEATS IS RESERVED

Arrangements Made to Care For Rush County Delegation at Richmond Tonight

CROWD GOING IN MACHINES

A section of fifty seats was reserved this afternoon for the Rush county delegation that will hear James E. Watson speak tonight in Richmond. The special train idea fell through, largely because no one had time to devote to the making of the arrangements. The Rush county delegation then resorted to the automobile and it was expected that fully fifty people from this city and county would attend the meeting.

The Richmond meeting promised to be one of the largest of its kind in the sixth district and with Mr. Watson speaking, local republicans were more than interested. The machines known to be going for the meeting included those of Albert L. Winship, John H. Kiplinger, Walter Hubbard, Will O. Feudner, John D. Stewart, Dr. J. C. Sexton, Rich Reed, James Dill and John W. Anderson.

John Brown left the Sexton sanatorium Monday, after an operation several days ago, and was taken to the home of his sister Mrs. W. E. Harton.

NEW TRIALS IN 2 CASES ASKED

Cannie Campbell Seeks to Prevent Faris Campbell From Sharing in Her Son's Estate

HOLD THAT THE COURT ERRED

Suit Involving Petition for Road Through Raleigh is Sent to Hancock County

Motions for new trials were filed in two cases today in circuit court. The most important case in which a new trial is asked was in the Campbell case in which Faris Carroll was declared by the jury to have been the son of the late Ovid Campbell. The motion for a new trial was filed by Cannie Campbell, the mother of the late Ovid Campbell.

This case was tried recently and the jury declared that Carroll was the son of Campbell and thus came in for his share of an estate valued at $25,000 and thereby prevented the mother, Cannie Campbell from sharing. In the motion for a new trial it is alleged that the court erred in not allowing certain evidence to go before the jury. This is the main cause given as to why a new trial is asked although the usual statutory causes are given.

The other motion for a new trial came in the case of John A. Anderson against Joseph Hardin, for the foreclosure of a mechanics lien. When the case was tried the plaintiff was given a judgment for $48.

The suit taken to the circuit court from the commissioner's court involving the petition for a road in Washington township, known as the Charles L. Smullen highway, was sent to Hancock county this morning on a change of venue. The demonstrators took the case to the circuit court. They allege that the road cannot be built under the three-mile road law. The petition asks for the paving with concrete of the road running east and west through Raleigh, starting at a point where the first road west of Raleigh intersects the east and west highway. The demonstrators maintained that it was unlawful to take out a section of a road and designate it as a special road to be paved under the three-mile road act. In granting the change of venue the court gave five days in which to perfect the change.

The case of Edwin P. Thayer against George W. Fleener, on a note, demanding $400, was submitted for trial and the court found for the plaintiff in the sum of $347.48 and $22.37 attorney fee, making a total judgment of $369.37.

Two Large Armies Attacking From East and West Threaten to Put Her out of the War

CERNADODA IS CAPTURED

Serbs Resume Offensive Against Monastir, Capturing Trenches to Depth of a Half Mile

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 24.—Two powerful armies attacking from the east and west threatened to crush Roumania and put her out of the war before winter.

Armies of the central powers have captured nearly one-third of the Constanza-Cernadoda railway and are now pressing on Cernadoda itself. The Roumanian force which evacuated Constanza is falling back hastily to avoid annihilation.

An official statement from Petrograd today declared the German forces had occupied a railway junction 20 miles west of Constanza.

The Serbs have resumed their advance against Monastir, capturing trenches to the depth of a half mile and inflicting heavy losses, the Paris war office announces.

On the Somme, British troops secured against attacks 1,000 yards of German trenches won in the advance on Bapaume.

FLEEING OUT OF CHIHUAHUA CITY

Refugees, Fearing at Villa's Assault De Facto Troops Will Evacuate, go to Juarez.

VILLISTAS NEAR THE CITY

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 24.—Hundreds of refugees fleeing from Chihuahua City streamed into Juarez during the night and today, bringing confirmation of reports of Cilla, presence outside Chihuahua City.

These refugees declared that the Villistas are on the western side of the city and an attack on the northern Mexican capital is expected at any moment.

About midnight 300 residents of the city arrived in a train. In one car were thirty girls, daughters of the most prominent families in the capital.

Nearly all the refugees left because they feared Villa would again enter Chihuahua City and some believe Mexican government troops will evacuate the city when the assault starts.

Some Campaign Irony.

In his most recent Shadow Lawn speech President Wilson declared that "it is the temper of the people of the United States not to exchange a handsome certainty"—meaning himself—"for an unhandsome uncertainty"—meaning Mr. Hughes. Woodrow Wilson as a certainty, as something definite and dependable, must appeal to the sense of the humorous in the average man. His changes of mind in regard to Mexico, his change of attitude on the subject of Panama canal tolls, his change of mind on preparedness, his change of mind on "pitiless publicity," and the whole long list of changes of mind bear witness to the fact that there is nothing more uncertain than his position, six months hence, on any question or policy. Handsome or unhandsome—personal pulchritude being a matter of no moment—Woodrow Wilson certainly is not a certainty in anything.

Molasses to Catch Flies.

Four years ago Woodrow Wilson told the farmers of New Jersey that the Democratic party intended to preserve the rule of free passage of American ships through the Panama Canal, so that American business could be developed by the great American enterprise at Panama. He pictured a rosy future for the American farmer on account of the great development of commerce through the canal. "Our platform means business," he said. "It is not molasses to catch flies."

After his election, Woodrow Wilson secured the repeal of the law giving free passage of American ships through the American Canal at Panama.

The farmers are still holding the bag of molasses.

Someone who signed their name "J. H. Carroll" sent a contribution to the Peoples Column of the Indianapolis Star a few days ago, saying that although it was reported the former progressives elsewhere would support Hughes, the progressives in Rush county would vote for Wilson. Evidently fearing argument on that point, "J. H. Carroll" disguised himself by using a name other than his own because an investigation has been made and fails to disclose anyone in Ripley township by that name. He gave his residence as Carthage, Ind.

There are several good and sufficient reasons why President Wilson has "kept us out of the European war." They are as follows:

- 1.—No European country wanted to fight us.
- 2.—All the belligerents wanted us to keep strictly out.
- 3.—The American people were bitterly opposed to butting in.
- 4.—Congress wouldn't stand for a war.
- 5.—It would have required two years for the United States to get on a war footing.

Still, while the democratic politicians are "thanking Gawd for Wilson who kept us out of war," we cannot help recalling that in 1898, when President McKinley was straining every effort to keep us out of war, these same politicians were abusing him as a coward and a craven.

Incidentally there doesn't seem to be much left of that contention that is an eight-hour law.

HEAPS PRAISE UPON WATSON

support James P. Goodrich.

W. R. Jinnett, candidate for the legislature, declared that he would serve all the people of Rush county, to the best of his ability, if elected. He also spoke briefly of the county ticket and commended the men on it to the people, not only for their worth and ability to fill the offices to which they aspire, but for the work they have done for the republican party.

D. W. Comstock, candidate for congress, referred to Mr. Gowdy as one who had gained distinction in civil life, "but I honor him the more," continued Mr. Comstock, "because as a boy he bared his breast to the bullets of the enemy and risked his life for the preservation of the union." Mr. Comstock said he was also proud to be in the home of Rushville's other distinguished citizen.

Congressman Humphrey was loudly applauded when he said that the Pacific coast was going to elect Hughes and Fairbanks. He declared that Indiana had the best organization in the United States and that he had been in the state two weeks, long enough to know that it was going republican.

"I feel sure," he continued, "that we will elect a president and majority in the house, but we will be robbed of the fruits of our victory and be unable to pass republican measures unless we have a majority in the senate."

Representative Humphrey then launched into the eulogy of Watson which was frequently interrupted by applause.

"Everybody was contented four years ago, labor was employed at good wages and prosperity was on every hand," said the congressman, "but the democrats came along and preached the doctrine of discontent. Among other things they promised to reduce the high cost of living and no one except a Democratic candidate for office or an inmate of an insane hospital will say that they have."

He recalled the numerous things which had been placed on the free list in the Underwood tariff law, and yet the price had not been lowered to the consumer, but rather increased. He told how placing lumber on the free list had ruined the lumber business in his home state of Washington. He told how the business had been transferred to British Columbia, because with the tariff off American workmen could not compete with the cheap labor of Chinese and Hindus employed in the mills of British Columbia. Congressman Humphrey told how 163 shingle mills representing the biggest industry in his state, had been permanently closed and abandoned when the Underwood bill went into effect.

"I challenge any man," he continued, "to show me where the price of any article has been permanently increased by placing a tariff duty on it, or the price of any article permanently reduced by the tariff duty being taken off of it."

The congressman, by quoting from official figures, revealed how during the ten months under the free trade bill the government had run behind $3,000,000 a month, despite the fact that imports were greater than ever before, and it became necessary to levy special internal taxes to pay the ordinary expenses of government.

"During the first ten months of the Underwood bill," he said, "we sold Canada, our best customer on the face of the globe, 15% less and Canada sold us 35% more, a net increase of business for them and loss for us of 50%. There were more financial failures, more factories closed, more idle cars and more unemployed than ever before, as the result of the Underwood law before the war began. Have you forgotten what happened? There were bread riots in Seattle. United States business decreased more than a million dollars an hour for the first ten months of the free trade measure.

"What will become of this war prosperity when at the close of the war, European countries will manufacture at less cost than ever before and dump their products on this

There are a number of other important features on this wonderful stove which we will be glad to explain to you.

country if there is a free trade law. Millions of men will be thrown out of employment."

The congressman talked of the absurdity and deception being practiced on the people in regard to the Adamson law by democratic speakers. He read the bill and quoted Speaker Champ Clark and Senate Leader Underwood to show that the bill was not an 8-hour measure, but merely one for fixing compensation.

"This is not an 8-hour law," he declared, "but an 11-hour law passed for the purpose of gaining a few votes for the democratic party. Why should we increase the wages of 400,000 already well paid trainmen and neglect 1,600,000 other railroad workers who work longer hours and receive less pay than those benefited by this law?"

Representative Humphrey recalled that Senator Taggart was quoted as saying at Lafayette that the democrats had kept all their pledges and added some. The speaker enumerated only a few of the 41 pledges he said the democrats had violated. He read the plank of the 1912 platform promising to protect the rights, interests, property and persons of Americans, no matter where they be, and then read a communication of the democratic secretary of state describing the terrible conditions in Mexico—how Americans had been murdered, their property destroyed and American women ravished.

"The trouble has been the vacillation of the administration," he added.

Mrs. Chauncey Duncan entertained two tables at Bridge yesterday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. George Myers, the delightful guest of Mrs. Claude Cambern from Kansas City, Mo. The card games and the services of a dainty luncheon occupied the afternoon for the guests. Clever Halloween favors were given the guests.

At their country home north of the city Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Ellison and family entertained at Sunday dinner in honor of Miss Gladys Brattain of Noblesville: Mr. and Mrs. Alva Junken, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ellison, the Misses Mary and Josephine Junken and Virgil Junken.

Twelve members of the local team of the R. N. and A. were in Batesville last Friday evening and took in a large class of candidates. In spite of the inclement weather, the invitation to the local Oak Leaf Camp 3915 R. N. of A. was accepted by the twelve on the team and captain Ben Manliet. After the ten candidates were taken in, a flashlight picture of the team was taken which will appear in the next copy of the R. N. paper. Following the elaborate banquet served in honor of the local visitors, short talks were made by the Batesville hostesses expressing their appreciation of the visit of the local team. Those from this city attending were Nora Wright, Mary Manliet, Lora Bearinger, Lala Snider, Hazel Andrews, Elizabeth Jones, Inez Johting, Laura Nebro, Lucy Jones, Mary Parrish, Mary Oakley, Nora Ross, Edward Wright, Ed Oakley and Clint Farthing.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

able that several other members will attend. Twenty-eight missionary societies belong to the association and for this reason, an inspiring time is anticipated. It is a semi-annual affair, and deals with both home and foreign missions.

Judging from the interest that is always displayed by the local women in club work, it is probable that practically every club will be represented at the state federation of clubs to be held at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis next week, beginning Tuesday evening. Any club woman in the state is welcome to attend.

One of the most attractive entertainments of the week is the suffrage dinner to be held on Thursday evening at the Claypool. An elaborate cabaret program and several suffrage talks will be given between courses. It is to be given by the Franchise League and will be $1.25 a plate. The federation dinner will be held at the same place on Wednesday evening at one dollar a plate.

Fourteen members of the Monday Study Circle were the guests of Mrs. Charles Davis at her home near Milroy yesterday afternoon. Quotations from Strickland Gilliland were the responses to the roll call. Mrs. Richey read an interesting paper on "Indiana Under Three Flags;" Mrs. Davis gave an inclusive review of "History of the Northwest Territory," and the "Birth of the State," was the subject chosen by Mrs. Francis. Since the centennial celebration, the subjects dealing with the history of the state are particularly interesting. Refreshments suggestive of the Halloween season, of pumpkin pie, covered with whipped cream, and coffee were served. The next club meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Laura Francis.

Although Mrs. John Worthington was more than surprised when 15 of her friends came in upon her at her home in North Morgan street last evening, the delightful little informal affair was all the more pleasant on that account. The guests presented the recent bride with a beautiful pedestal and fern. A series of card games was the diversion during the evening after which refreshments were served. In the party of friends arranging the surprise were Mrs. Ernest Mitchell, Mrs. Jesse Poe, Mrs. Lou Weeks, Mrs. Ben Sparks, Miss Hettie Retherford, Mrs. Fred Cochran, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Ed Pitman, Mrs. Lote Carter, Mrs. Walter Easley, Mrs. Lev Wallace of Detroit, Mrs. Garrigus, Miss Minnie Vaught, Mrs. Mike Coyne and Mrs. Ferd Retherford.

Miss Alleine Budd has been pledged to the Alpha Chi Omega sorority at Northwestern university, where she is a student.

Plans for the members attending the state federation of clubs to be held in Indianapolis next week were discussed at the meeting of the Monday Circle held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger yesterday afternoon. It is probable that several of the members will attend one or more of the sessions.

The program yesterday went on with the dramatic line of work predominating in the general program for the year. In the paper, "Early English Theatres, Actors and Audiences," prepared by Mrs. T. M. Green and Mrs. Vern Norris, Mrs. Green dealt with the part referring to actors while Mrs. Norris read on the theatre and audiences. A number of interesting facts were brought out. Mrs. Kramer's paper on "Shakespeare's Contemporaries," was also interesting as well as instructive.

About 25 members of the club were present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. B. Thomas.

ed. "They have not had the courage to go in or stay out of Mexico. If I had been too proud to fight I would also have been too proud to quarrel."

Congressman Humphrey discussed the Mexican policy at length, recalling the blunders, one by one, and declaring the greatest one to be, when the administration allowed Carranza troops to march across United States territory to make an attack on Villistas, which provoked the attack on Columbus, as predicted by many familiar with the situation.

He recalled that Bryan at Louisville quoted Lincoln about the danger of swapping horses in the middle of a stream.

"But when I remember," he added "that animal that typifies the democratic party, I recall that Lincoln never said not to swap a donkey for a horse in the middle of the stream."

"Stand by the president, is the shout," said the congressman, "but how can you when he is perpetual motion himself."

"I will ask you if it is not true," he said later, "that the war does not operate the same as a high protective tariff, wherein our former competitors have become our best customers."

The congressman closed with an eloquent description of the battlefields of Europe showing how everything being used was made in America, and then asked that it was any wonder that the blood-soaked prosperity was not noticed here.

SEALON 100HOS

(By J. H. Scholl.)

Parents received reports of the pupils' work last evening. The parents are urged to examine the reports carefully.

The cards have a new system of letters for indicating grades. A pupil should be urged to do his best and the money spent upon the schools entitles each to get the best results possible. A tabulation of grades will be kept each six weeks and averages made. We expected to report upon those who average, upon their regular school subject, 90 per cent or better. It has been impossible to get the data ready for these figures, but the following list in the six year high school made all B. grades or better.

Magdalen Arbuckle, May Cheek, Marie Clark, Raymond Clarkson, Helen Frazee, Lucile Geraghty, Norma Headlee, Helen Matlock, Clifford M. Mauzy, Louise Murphy, Mary Louise Poe, Lucile Roth, Nola Roth, May Taylor and Valeta Walton.

Some of the above pupils have made two and three A's. But no pupil is included in the list who had any grade less than a B even if there were some A's in his list. As soon as the averages are compiled a list will be given of the averages.

The Spring of Perpetual Youth

23 PIGS BORN TO SOW
The Rev. J. T. Scull of west of Milroy, who was in Rushville today, is willing to back up the story he told here to the effect that a sow on his place yesterday morning farrowed 23 pigs, 16 living and 7 dead. Stockmen say that 18 is the largest number they ever heard of. The Rev. Mr. Scull attaches no significance to the fact that they were born on the 23 of October.

was what the Spanish explorer sought in Florida. Youth cannot be perpetual, but with health a man or woman can retain youthful looks till the near approach of actual old age. SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

DAINTINESS — elegance — charm—these can be obtained for relatively small cost if discrimination be used in the means employed. Our dress and deportment reveal our taste to the nearby onlooker. cessful tour of the county ever held.

Every mention of Watson's and Gowdy's name was greeted with long applause. The townspeople of the candidate for senator showed their loyalty to him and proved to the visiting speakers that his worth is appreciated by his next door neighbors.

"Indiana has two distinguished sons who are candidates on the republican ticket for the United States Senate. Both of these men are of marked ability, high standing and worthy of support of every citizen,"
said Representative Humphrey.

"I am pleased to have the privilege of speaking here tonight in the home of James E. Watson. I have known him intimately for many years. I served with him in Congress; I know his ability; I know his standing in that great legislative body. He is one of the most for-most orators in this country. He is one of the most loyal and patriotic men in this nation. He is one of the most lovable, kindly and generous men that I have ever had the fortune to call my friend.

"He commanded the confidence
the admiration and the esteem of all his colleagues in Congress, regardless of party. He is a leader among leaders. Above all he has courage, the most valuable of all traits in a public servant. He has convictions and he dares to utter them.

"Every one always knows where to find Jim Watson. He never trims or apologizes or stutters. He has,
and deserves, a national reputation as one of the ablest men that has been in Congress during the last twenty years.

"He has acquaintances in both the House and Senate. He knows how laws are made. He knows the intricacies of legislation. He will not have to learn the ways of Congress; he already knows.

"The value of his experience to Indiana and the country can not be overestimated. He will begin at the place a new man would reach only after years of service. He will at once command the attention of the entire nation. He will at once become one of the leaders of that great body.

"Mr. Watson has had the courage of his convictions. He has champion-ed the great principle of a protective tariff. He has stood for protection when it was not popular to do so,
but his attitude on this and many other republican principles has been vindicated.

"With James E. Watson in the Senate, Indiana will once more occupy the proud position in that great body that she did when she was represented by Morton, Harrison and Fairbanks. The entire

Familiar Scenes Shown in G. O. P. Motion Pictures

Familiar scenes from Rushville, several of which were shown, were applauded when the motion picture prepared by the republican state committee and one "A Remitted Party," arranged by the republican national committee, were presented at the Graham Annex last night
following the political meeting.

James E. Watson was shown in a number of different poses and at various places. A view of him standing on his lawn here, a view of his home and a scene showing him and his family leaving their home and returning was the signal for long applause.

Mr. Watson was also seen in conference with John K. Gowdy, former state chairman, under the familiar awning back of Mr. Gowdy's home, where he enjoyed the hot summer days. Mr. Gowdy entered the picture again when a view was presented of him, twenty years ago leader of the republican party in the state, in conference with the present state chairman, Will H.
Hays, on the lawn in front of Gowdy's home.

Mr. Watson was again seen when just pictures of the candidates were displayed in order, and at another stage of the film, when he, James P.
Goodrich, Harry S. New and the state chairman were in conference on the lawn at C. W. Fairbanks' home. The Rushville candidate was again shown to good advantage
when he was congratulated by Ed Toner, former state chairman of the progressive party.

Views of all the state candidates were presented, interspersed with crisp sayings by J. P. Goodrich, revealing how extravagant the state administration had been under democratic rule, by increasing offices and adding to the running expenses of the government.

Both in the state and national picture, views are given of Gov. Hughes when he spent Sunday at the home of C. W. Fairbanks recently.
The national committee film is devoted largely to showing the immense crowds which Hughes addressed while on campaign tours and giving excerpts from his speeches.
Pictures of Roosevelt and Taft and their endorsement of Hughes are also included.

country is greatly interested in the election of Watson."

Judge Sparks presided and introduced all of the candidates, who spoke briefly. Edgar Bush of Salem, candidate for lieutenant-governor, said that "after, the speeches today and the crowds who have listened to them, my belief is reaffirmed that the republican party has come back, and has come back to stay."

"I am only too glad to be in the home county of my colleague, James E. Watson," said Harry S. New,
when introduced by Judge Sparks. "I am also glad to be in the home of that sturdy old republican, Capt.
John K. Gowdy. The republicans of Indiana appreciate the service he has rendered.

"When you hear from the returns from Marion county," he said at the close of his short speech, "I am sure you will be satisfied, because I guarantee that my colleague will run right along with me."

Lem Dobyns, of Greensburg, candidate for joint senator, said that if the people wanted a business administration in the state and a reduction of taxes, they should elect a republican senate and house to

ASKS RECEIVER, LIEN FORECLOSED

Mrs. Laura Joyce Stamm, as Guardian, Files Action Against
J. Barnes, Demanding $750

CLAIMS NOTE FOR $300 IS DUE

Mrs. Laura Joyce Stamm, as guardian of Forest Joyce, Lorene
Joyce, John Joyce and Gilbert
Joyce, has filed suit in the circuit court against Jonah Barnes, asking for the foreclosure of a lien and the appointment of a receiver, demanding $750.

It is alleged that she leased him
a farm of 120 acres for the term of one year, dating from Mar. 1, 1916, to March 1, 1917. The consideration was $750, according to the complaint and to secure the payment he issued three notes, one for $150 due March 1, 1916, one for $300 due September 1, 1916 and one for $300
due December 25, 1916. The complaint alleges that he has failed to pay the note for $300 due Sept. 1
and refuses to pay.

The complaint set forth that unless a receiver is appointed to take charge of the personal property he will remove it from the farm and prevent her from collecting the notes. Kiplinger and Smith represent the plaintiff.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR HERE

Thomas Dailey Speaks to Crowd in Court House Composed of 58
Democrats, 12 Progressives

CHAIRMAN ED LEE ALSO HERE

The progressive meeting in the court house last night attracted a crowd of seventy-four, by actual count. Of the seventy-four 58 were democrats, 12 were progressives and 4 of unknown political faith. The speaker of the evening was Thomas Dailey, progressive candidate for governor.

Mr. Dailey was introduced to the crowd by Ed Lee, progressive state chairman. Both men rapped both of the older parties and declared that they failed to see how a progressive could vote either the democratic or republican tickets this fall since the progressives stand for the same things they did in 1912 and in 1914.

The meeting was arranged on short notice. The progressives also toured the county yesterday, following in the wake of the republican tour.

INHERITANCE TAX $216.76

Appraiser Finds Late Allen Hinch-
man's Estate is Worth $30,430

Judge Sparks has approved the inheritance tax in the estate of the late Allen Hinchman as appraised
by inheritance tax appraiser, Henry Schrader. The estate was found to be worth $30,430, of which $28,930 is real estate and $1,500 personal property. The inheritance tax to the state amounts to $216.76 and must be paid by three heirs as follows: U. G. Hinchman, $122.52;
Minnie Rich, $86.72 and Ruth Hinchman $7.52. The other heirs sharing in the estate got less than $2,000 and are therefore exempt from taxation.

VANNUYS DEFENDS DEMOCRATIC LAWS

Speaks to Crowd That Fills Town Hall at Raleigh, Following Address by Robert Adams

GEORGE CAMPBELL PRESIDES

Speaking before a crowd that filled the town hall at Raleigh, Fred Van Nuys of Indianapolis defended the democratic administration and praised the laws enacted under the democrats. Robert Adams, an Indianapolis attorney addressed the audience before Mr. Van Nuys and gave a very able address. The meeting was held last night.

George Campbell of this city presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers. The Falmouth orchestra furnished the music. The Washington township crowd was augmented by a crowd going in two machines from this city.

Mr. VanNuys outlined the various reforms that the democrats claim to have enacted into law, defended both the state and national administrations and made a strong appeal
for the re-election of President Wilson. This was the second appearance of VanNuys in Rush county
this campaign.

SECTION OF FIFTY SEATS IS RESERVED

Arrangements Made to Care For Rush County Delegation at Richmond Tonight

CROWD GOING IN MACHINES

A section of fifty seats was reserved this afternoon for the Rush county delegation that will hear James E. Watson speak tonight in Richmond. The special train idea fell through, largely because no one had time to devote to the making of the arrangements. The Rush county delegation then resorted to the automobile and it was expected that fully fifty people from this city and county would attend the meeting.

The Richmond meeting promised to be one of the largest of its kind in the sixth district and with Mr.
Watson speaking, local republicans were more than interested. The machines known to be going for the meeting included those of Albert L.
Winship, John H. Kiplinger, Walter
Hubbard, Will O. Feudner, John
D. Stewart, Dr. J. C. Sexton, Rich Reed, James Dill and John W. Anderson.

John Brown left the Sexton sanitorium Monday, after an operation several days ago, and was taken to the home of his sister Mrs. W. E.
Horton.

NEW TRIALS IN 2 CASES ASKED

Cannie Campbell Seeks to Prevent Faris Campbell From Sharing in Her Son's Estate

HOLD THAT THE COURT ERRED

Suit Involving Petition for Road Through Raleigh is Sent to Hancock County

Motions for new trials were filed in two cases today in circuit court.
The most important case in which a new trial is asked was in the Campbell case in which Faris Carroll was declared by the jury to have been the son of the late Ovid Campbell. The motion for a new trial was filed by Cannie Campbell, the mother of the late Ovid Campbell.

This case was tried recently and the jury declared that Carroll was the son of Campbell and thus came in for his share of an estate valued at $25,000 and thereby prevented the mother, Cannie Campbell from sharing. In the motion for a new trial it is alleged that the court erred in not allowing certain evidence to go before the jury. This is the main cause given as to why a new trial is asked although the usual statutory causes are given.

The other motion for a new trial came in the case of John A. Anderson against Joseph Hardin, for the foreclosure of a mechanics lien. When the case was tried the plaintiff was given a judgment for $48.

The suit taken to the circuit court from the commissioner's court involving the petition for a road in Washington township, known as the Charles L. Smullen highway, was sent to Hancock county this morning on a change of venue. The remonstrators took the case to the circuit court. They allege that the road cannot be built under the three-mile road law. The petition asks for the paving with concrete of the road running east and west
through Raleigh, starting at a point where the first road west of Raleigh intersects the east and west highway. The remonstrators maintained that it was unlawful to take out a section of a road and designate it as a special road to be paved under the three-mile road act. In granting the change of venue the court gave five days in which to perfect the change.

The case of Edwin P. Thayer against George W. Fleener, on a note, demanding $400, was submitted for trial and the court found for the plaintiff in the sum of $347.48 and $22.37 attorney fee, making a total judgment of $369.85.

ery subject in the German situation,

to be gone into this afternoon during an extensive conference between President Wilson and James W. Gerard, ambassador to Berlin.

communication from Germany either on the submarine question or peace possibilities though he expects there will be a full discussion of both during the conference.

The ambassador said he did not said he would take no part in the

Two Large Armies Attacking From East and West Threaten to

CERNADODA IS CAPTURED

Serbs Resume Offensive Against Monastir, Capturing Trenches
to Depth of a Half Mile

(United Press.)

London, Oct. 24.—Two powerful armies attacking from the east and west threatened to crush Roumania
and put her out of the war before winter.

Armies of the central powers have captured nearly one-third of the Constanza-Cernadoda railway and are now pressing on Cernadoda itself. The Roumanian force which evacuated Constanza is falling back hastily to avoid annihilation.

An official statement from Petrograd today declared the German forces had occupied a railway junction 20 miles west of Constanza.

The Serbs have resumed their advance against Monastir, capturing trenches to the depth of a half mile and inflicting heavy losses, the Paris
war office announces.

On the Somme, British troops secured against attacks 1,000 yards of German trenches won in the advance on Bapaume.

FLEEING OUT OF CHIHUAHUA CITY

Refugees, Fearing at Villa's Assault
De Facto Troops Will Evacuate, go to Juarez.

VILLISTAS NEAR THE CITY

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 24.—Hundreds of refugees fleeing from Chihuahua City streamed into Juarez during the night and today, bringing confirmation of reports of Villa's presence outside Chihuahua City.

These refugees declared that the Villistas are on the western side of the city and an attack on the northern Mexican capital is expected
at any moment.

About midnight 300 residents of the city arrived in a train. In one car were thirty girls, daughters of the most prominent families in the capital.

Nearly all the refugees left because they feared Villa would again enter Chihuahua City and some believe Mexican government troops will evacuate the city when the assault starts.

(By United Press.)

New York, Oct. 24.—One of the biggest robberies that has occurred about New York in years was re-

Frank Grey Griswold, prominent Wall street and sporting man, told of burglars entering his Long Island home last night and escaping with jewelry and silver valued at between $80,000 and $100,000.

Griswold, his wife and her daughter are believed to have been choloriformed by the robbers at the Griswold home, one of the show places of Long Island.

The skating rink was torn down
today and will be shipped to Craw-

Some Campaign Irony.

In his most recent Shadow Lawn speech President Wilson declared that "it is the temper of the people of the United States not to exchange a handsome certainty"—meaning himself—"for an unhandsome uncertainty"—meaning Mr. Hughes. Woodrow Wilson as a certainty, as something definite and dependable, must appeal to the sense of the humorous in the average man. His changes of mind in regard to Mexico, his change of attitude on the subject of Panama canal tolls, his change of mind on preparedness, his change of mind on "pitiless publicity," and the whole long list of changes of mind bear witness to the fact that there is nothing more uncertain than his position, six months hence, on any question or policy. Handsome or unhandsome—personal pulchritude being a matter of no moment—Woodrow Wilson certainly is not a certainty in anything.

Molasses to Catch Flies.

Four years ago Woodrow Wilson told the farmers of New Jersey that the Democratic party intended to preserve the rule of free passage of American ships through the Panama Canal, so that American business

could be developed by the great American enterprise at Panama. He pictured a rosy future for the American farmer on account of the great development of commerce through the canal. "Our platform means business," he said. "It is not molasses to catch flies."

After his election, Woodrow Wilson secured the repeal of the law giving free passage of American ships through the American Canal at Panama.

The farmers are still holding the bag of molasses.

Someone who signed their name "J. H. Carroll" sent a contribution to the Peoples Column of the Indianapolis Star a few days ago, saying that although it was reported the former progressives elsewhere would support Hughes, the progressives in Rush county would vote for Wilson. Evidently fearing argument on that point, "J. H. Carroll" disguised himself by using a name other than his own because an investigation has been made and fails to disclose anyone in Ripley township by that name. He gave his residence as Carthage, Ind.

There are several good and sufficient reasons why President Wilson has "kept us out of the European war." They are as follows:

- 1.—No European country wanted to fight us.
- 2.—All the belligerents wanted us to keep strictly out.
- 3.—The American people were bitterly opposed to butting in.
- 4.—Congress wouldn't stand for a war.
- 5.—It would have required two years for the United States to get on a war footing.

Still, while the democratic politicians are "thanking Gawd for Wilson who kept us out of war," we cannot help recalling that in 1898, when President McKinley was straining every effort to keep us out of war, these same politicians were abusing him as a coward and a craven.

Incidentally there doesn't seem to be much left of that contention that is an eight-hour law.

support James P. Goodrich.

W. R. Jinnett, candidate for the legislature, declared that he would serve all the people of Rush county, to the best of his ability, if elected. He also spoke briefly of the county ticket and commended the men on it to the people, not only for their worth and ability to fill the offices to which they aspire, but for the work they have done for the republican party.

D. W. Comstock, candidate for congress, referred to Mr. Gowdy as one who had gained distinction in civil life, "but I honor him the more," continued Mr. Comstock, "because as a boy he bared his breast to the bullets of the enemy and risked his life for the preservation of the union." Mr. Comstock said he was also proud to be in the home of Rushville's other distinguished citizen.

Congressman Humphrey was loudly applauded when he said that the Pacific coast was going to elect Hughes and Fairbanks. He declared that Indiana had the best organization in the United States and that he had been in the state two weeks, long enough to know that it was going republican.

"I feel sure," he continued, "that we will elect a president and majority in the house, but we will be robbed of the fruits of our victory, and be unable to pass republican measures unless we have a majority in the senate."

Representative Humphrey then launched into the eulogy of Watson which was frequently interrupted by applause.

"Everybody was contented four years ago, labor was employed at good wages and prosperity was on every hand," said the congressman, "but the democrats came along and preached the doctrine of discontent. Among other things they promised to reduce the high cost of living and no one except a Democratic candidate for office or an inmate of an insane hospital will say that they have."

He recalled the numerous things which had been placed on the free list in the Underwood tariff law, and yet the price had not been lowered to the consumer, but rather increased. He told how placing lumber on the free list had ruined the lumber business in his home state of Washington. He told how the business had been transferred to British Columbia, because with the tariff off American workmen could not compete with the cheap labor of Chinese and Hindus employed in the mills of British Columbia. Congressman Humphrey told how 163 shingle mills representing the biggest industry in his state, had been permanently closed and abandoned when the Underwood bill went into effect.

"I challenge any man," he continued, "to show me where the price of any article has been permanently increased by placing a tariff duty on it, or the price of any article permanently reduced by the tariff duty being taken off of it."

The congressman, by quoting from official figures, revealed how during the ten months under the free trade bill the government had run behind $3,000,000 a month, despite the fact that imports were greater than ever before, and it became necessary to levy special internal taxes to pay the ordinary expenses of government.

"During the first ten months of the Underwood bill," he said, "we sold Canada, our best customer on the face of the globe, 15% less and Canada sold us 35% more, a net increase of business for them and loss for us of 50%. There were more financial failures, more factories closed, more idle cars and more unemployed than ever before, as the result of the Underwood law before the war began. Have you forgotten what happened? There were bread riots in Seattle. United States business decreased more than a million dollars an hour for the first ten months of the free trade measure."

"What will become of this war prosperity when at the close of the war, European countries will manufacture at less cost than ever before and dump their products on this country if there is a free trade law. Millions of men will be thrown out of employment."

The congressman talked of the absurdity and deception being practiced on the people in regard to the Adamson law by democratic speakers. He read the bill and quoted Speaker Champ Clark and Senate Leader Underwood to show that the bill was not an 8-hour measure, but merely one for fixing compensation.

"This is not an 8-hour law," he declared, "but an 11-hour law passed for the purpose of gaining a few votes for the democratic party. Why should we increase the wages of 400,000 already well paid trainmen and neglect 1,600,000 other railroad workers who work longer hours and receive less pay than those benefited by this law?"

Representative Humphrey recalled that Senator Taggart was quoted as saying at Lafayette that the democrats had kept all their pledges and added some. The speaker enumerated only a few of the 41 pledges he said the democrats had violated. He read the plank of the 1912 platform promising to protect the rights, interests, property and persons of Americans, no matter where they be, and then read a communication of the democratic secretary of state describing the terrible conditions in Mexico—how Americans had been murdered, their property destroyed and American women ravished.

"The trouble has been the vacillation of the administration," he added.

SOCIETY

The members of the Happy-go-Lucky club will be entertained by Mrs. O. J. Myers at her home southeast of the city on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Chaucney Duncan entertained two tables at Bridge yesterday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. George Myers, the delightful guest of Mrs. Claude Cambren from Kansas City, Mo. The card games and the services of a dainty luncheon occupied the afternoon for the guests. Clever Halloween favors were given the guests.

At their country home north of the city Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Ellison and family entertained at Sunday dinner in honor of Miss Gladys Brattain of Noblesville. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Junken, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ellison, the Misses Mary and Josephine Junken and Virgil Junken.

Twelve members of the local team of the R. N. and A. were in Batesville last Friday evening and took in a large class of candidates. In spite of the inclement weather, the invitation to the local Oak Leaf Camp 3915 R. N. of A. was accepted by the twelve on the team and captain Ben Manliel. After the ten candidates were taken in, a flashlight picture of the team was taken which will appear in the next copy of the R. N. paper. Following the elaborate banquet served in honor of the local visitors, short talks were made by the Batesville hostesses expressing their appreciation of the visit of the local team. Those from this city attending were Nora Wright, Mary Manliel, Lora Beninger, Lula Snider, Hazel Andrews, Elizabeth Jones, Inez Johnling, Laura Nebro, Lucy Jones, Mary Parrish, Mary Oakley, Nora Ross, Edward Wright, Ed Oakley and Clint Farthing.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

An interesting program on Indiana was carried out at the meeting of the Sorosis Club held with Mrs. Britt at her home in Glenwood this afternoon. Responses to the roll were given with current events on Indiana. Mrs. George Saxon discussed the "Recent History of Indiana" and Mrs. Saxon read a paper on the very timely subject, "Beauty Spots of Indiana."

The local Missionary society of the First Baptist church is taking interest in the missionary conference of the societies in the Elmhurst association at the Lewis Creek church south of Shelbyville on Friday. Mrs. S. G. Huntington of the local society is treasurer of the association and Mrs. Fred Arbuckle is secretary of literature. Mrs. Henry Alsop will go as a delegate from the local society and it is probable that several other members will attend. Twenty-eight missionary societies belong to the association and for this reason, an inspiring time is anticipated. It is a semi-annual affair, and deals with both home and foreign missions.

bable that several other members will attend. Twenty-eight missionary societies belong to the association and for this reason, an inspiring time is anticipated. It is a semi-annual affair, and deals with both home and foreign missions.

Judging from the interest that is always displayed by the local women in club work, it is probable that practically every club will be represented at the state federation of clubs to be held at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis next week, beginning Tuesday evening. Any club woman in the state is welcome to attend.

One of the most attractive entertainments of the week is the suffrage dinner to be held on Thursday evening at the Claypool. An elaborate cabaret program and several suffrage talks will be given between courses. It is to be given by the Franchise League and will be $1.25 a plate. The federation dinner will be held at the same place on Wednesday evening at one dollar a plate.

Dr. Geisel talks at one of the sessions on "Home Behind the Man." The sessions are to be held at the Herron Art Institute.

Fourteen members of the Monday Study Circle were the guests of Mrs. Charles Davis at her home near Milroy yesterday afternoon. Quotations from Strickland Gilliland were the responses to the roll call. Mrs. Richey read an interesting paper on "Indiana Under Three Flags;" Mrs. Davis gave an inclusive review of "History of the Northwest Territory," and the "Birth of the State," was the subject chosen by Mrs. Francis. Since the centennial celebration, the subjects dealing with the history of the state are particularly interesting. Refreshments suggestive of the Halloween season, of pumpkin pie, covered with whipped cream, and coffee were served. The next club meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Laura Francis.

Although Mrs. John Worthington was more than surprised when 15 of her friends came in upon her at her home in North Morgan street last evening, the delightful little informal affair was all the more pleasant on that account. The guests presented the recent bride with a beautiful pedestal and fern. A series of card games was the diversion during the evening after which refreshments were served. In the party of friends arranging the surprise were Mrs. Ernest Mitchell, Mrs. Jesse Poe, Mrs. Lou Weeks, Mrs. Ben Sparks, Miss Hettie Retherford, Mrs. Fred Cochran, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Ed Pitman, Mrs. Lote Carter, Mrs. Walter Easley, Mrs. Lev Wallace of Detroit, Mrs. Garrigus, Miss Minnie Vaughn, Mrs. Mike Coyne and Mrs. Ferd Retherford.

Miss Alleine Budd has been pledged to the Alpha Chi Omega sorority at Northwestern university, where she is a student.

Plans for the members attending the state federation of clubs to be held in Indianapolis next week were discussed at the meeting of the Monday Circle held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger yesterday afternoon. It is probable that several of the members will attend one or more of the sessions.

The program yesterday went on with the dramatic line of work predominating in the general program for the year. In the paper, "Early English Theatres, Actors and Audiences," prepared by Mrs. T. M. Green and Mrs. Vern Norris, Mrs. Green dealt with the part referring to actors while Mrs. Norris read on the theatre and audiences. A number of interesting facts were brought out. Mrs. Kramer's paper on "Shakespeare's Contemporaries," was also interesting as well as instructive.

About 25 members of the club were present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. B. Thomas.

ed. "They have not had the courage to go in or stay out of Mexico. If I had been too proud to fight I would also have been too proud to quarrel."

Congressman Humphrey discussed the Mexican policy at length, recalling the blunders, one by one, and declaring the greatest one to be, when the administration allowed Carranza troops to march across United States territory to make an attack on Villistas, which provoked the attack on Columbus, as predicted by many familiar with the situation.

He recalled that Bryan at Louisville quoted Lincoln about the danger of swapping horses in the middle of a stream.

"But when I remember," he added "that animal that typifies the democratic party, I recall that Lincoln never said not to swap a donkey for a horse in the middle of the stream." "Stand by the president, is the shout," said the congressman, "but how can you when he is perpetual motion himself."

"I will ask you if it is not true," he said later, "that the war does not operate the same as a high protective tariff, wherein our former competitors have become our best customers."

The congressman closed with an eloquent description of the battlefields of Europe showing how everything being used was made in America, and then asked that it was any wonder that the blood-soaked prosperity was not noticed here.

SEASON 100HOS

(By J. H. Scholl.)

Parents received reports of the pupils' work last evening. The parents are urged to examine the reports carefully.

The cards have a new system of letters for indicating grades. A pupil should be urged to do his best and the money spent upon the schools' entitles each to get the best results possible. A tabulation of grades will be kept each six weeks and averages made. We expected to report upon those who average, upon their regular school subject, 90 per cent or better. It has been impossible to get the data ready for these figures, but the following list in the six year high school made all B. grades or better.

Magdalen Arbuckle, May Cheek, Marie Clark, Raymond Clarkson, Helen Frazee, Lucile Geraghty, Norma Headlee, Helen Matlock, Clifford M. Maury, Louise Murphy, Mary Louise Poe, Lucile Roth, Nola Roth, May Taylor and Valeta Walton.

Some of the above pupils have made two and three A's. But no pupil is included in the list who had any grade less than a B even if there were some A's in his list. As soon as the averages are compiled a list will be given of the averages.

The Spring of Perpetual Youth

23 PIGS BORN TO SOW
The Rev. J. T. Scull of west of Milroy, who was in Rushville today, is willing to back up the story he told here to the effect that a sow on his place yesterday morning farrowed 23 pigs, 16 living and 7 dead. Stockmen say that 18 is the largest number they ever heard of. The Rev. Mr. Scull attaches no significance to the fact that they were born on the 23 of October.

was what the Spanish explorer sought in Florida. Youth cannot be perpetual, but with health a man or woman can retain youthful looks till the near approach of actual old age. SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
